

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

Soon after the present Treasurer of the Alumni Association was elected (June, 1908), he began to urge upon the officers of the Association the advantages which would result from the preparation and distribution of an occupation and address list of the graduates of the College. During the presidency of Dr. C. E. Dowman (1898-1902) several hundred dollars was spent, and considerable work was done, looking to the publication of a book of this kind, which was never completed. Upon the change of administration in 1902 the work ceased and the material which had been collected was lost. Professor E. H. Johnson began to collect information for a similar work in 1907. The information blanks he sent out called for a great deal of detailed information, such as: Date and place of birth; date of marriage and wife's maiden name; College honors and membership in literary societies and fraternities; sketch of life since leaving College, including residence at other institutions, with degrees, if any, occupations and places of residence, positions held, etc. About 200 of these filled out blanks were turned over to the editor of this volume when he began this work. It would be most desirable to publish a book containing this information about every graduate of the College, but the Alumni Association can not afford to do so at this time. At a later date when such a book is compiled it should contain the names of every matriculate. It is estimated that between 30 and 40 per cent. of the matriculates graduate. On this basis between 4,000 and 5,500 students have matriculated, including graduates. One-third of these are dead and the estimated number of living former students of Emory College to-day is from 2,666 to 3,666.

The work was begun in February, 1909, and the book goes to press about the first of November, 1909. It has been beset with many difficulties. Our effort has been to make the book as accurate as possible. In a number of cases men have been reported dead and it has developed later that such was not the case. On August 21, 1909, we received a letter from Cecil H. Smith, '83, of Sherman, Texas, saying, "Professor J. C. McEachin, '95, was killed at Paris, Texas, about a year ago." In the same mail we received a letter from Professor McEachin, giving his address as Helena, Georgia. It is probable that similar mistakes have been made in regard to other men.

It has been possible to secure the addresses of nearly 98 per cent. of the graduates. With such an accurate record of the location of its alumni, the College should be able to keep in closer touch with them. The encouragement of closer relations between the alumni and the College is one of the main purposes of this occupation and address register, it being clear that the College needs the intelligent and systematic interest of its graduates, and that the latter, as they become engrossed in the work of life, need the inspiration of the College's ideals of scholarship and of service.

It is interesting to note that there are 191 teachers, 168 ministers, 165 lawyers, 89 doctors and 53 farmers. The teachers and ministers who compose the largest representation are largely transients, many changing their place of residence every year.

The arrangement of the book is very much the same as that of the "Directory of Living Graduates of Yale University" which was published in 1908. In November, 1908, the editor of this volume was in New Haven and having at that time this work in mind, called on the Yale authorities and consulted them in regard to their methods of preparation and compilation, having their system explained in detail, and securing copies of all the forms, blanks, circular letters, etc., used in this work.

A great deal of information has been given to the editor by officers and members of the Chi Phi, Kappa Alpha, Phi Delta Theta, Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Delta Tau Delta and Sigma Nu fraternities. Acknowledgment is also made of the valuable help of Miss Bertie Robertson, Professors E. H. Johnson and H. H. Stone; Mr. L. B. Robeson, President of the Alumni Association; Mr. P. H. Christian, and to all others who assisted in the preparation of the work. The Minutes of the Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for the year 1908 were used extensively.

The following alumni have contributed financially to the publication of the book: A. D. Thompson, '98; Alex. S. Murray, '73; L. Z. Rosser, '78; N. C. Miller, '93; S. J. Cole, '88; T. M. Norwood, '60; R. W. Smith, '56.

A substantial binding has been put on the book at a greatly increased cost to the Alumni Association in the hope of making it more permanent and serviceable as a reference book. It is small and can be easily carried in the pocket or slipped in the pigeon-hole of a desk.

As the College sends out each year a large amount of printed matter to all graduates, it is hoped that each graduate will promptly notify this office of any change in his permanent mail address. Information regarding errors and omissions will also be most welcome.

It is requested that the book be used only for College and personal purposes, not as a general mailing list for advertising.

THOS. W. CONNALLY.

Office of the Treasurer of the Alumni Association, 24½ Whitehall St., Atlanta, Ga., November 1, 1909.

AVENIDA PALACE HOTEL,
LISBON, PORTUGAL, Jan. 5, 1910.

MR. L. B. ROBESON,
President Emory College Alumni Association,
Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir:

The copy of the "Occupation and Address Register of Emory College Graduates" was sent to the printer about the first of November, 1909. The proof was to have been furnished for correction the latter part of December.

I am in Lisbon, Portugal, on my way to Jerusalem, the Holy Land, Cairo, Egypt, Suz, the Nile, and other points in the East; by way of Tangier, Morocco, and Malta. I will not return to Atlanta until about April 1, 1910.

I am sorry that circumstances have been such as to delay this work and I hope that you will correct the copy at the earliest date possible (you will not receive this letter until about January 25) and allow the printer to proceed to a speedy completion of the book.

Thanking you very much for assuming the burden of this work, I am

Very truly yours,

T. W. CONNALLY, '02.

The above letter from Brother Connally explains itself. I have read the proof of this book as carefully as I could. The publication of this register is practically entirely due to the work and energy of Brother Connally. I do not know any one that I think could or would have undertaken to compile all the statistics about the graduates of Emory College in so short a time except Brother Connally. He prepared the copy for the entire book, except the statistics on the last pages. I have read the proof and prepared the summary of the Geographical Index and the Statistics of Occupation. This work was made particularly laborious because between the time Brother Connally prepared his copy and the time the proof was turned over to me both the North and South Georgia Conferences had met and the addresses of many preachers were changed. The various changes of address required sixty-two changes in the class roll, geographical index, and statistics, making it a rather laborious undertaking.

I trust this register will be found comparatively free from errors. I hope that all errors in address, names, occupations, or otherwise, will be immediately reported to me so that we can issue a bulletin of corrections if such should be necessary.

L. B. ROBESON, President.

Marietta, Ga.,
February 14, 1910.

The class rolls begin on page 57 and extend to page 128. The names of all members of the Alumni Association both life and annual are printed in capital letters in these rolls.

SKETCH OF THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

"For many years it was the custom of the alumni of Emory College to meet annually during the commencement occasion and have some one of its members deliver an oration. These meetings were public and were held in the College chapel, usually on Tuesday afternoon. After the address was delivered and officers for the ensuing year elected, a motion to adjourn was generally next in order and carried, and the members dispersed. Such meetings did not tend to create any enthusiasm among the alumni. Besides, there seemed to be no special object for the Association, as such, to accomplish."

Possibly the most notable achievement of the Association up to 1895 was the result of the following Resolution adopted June 22, 1886:

"Motion was made that this Association request the Trustees to petition the legislature to amend the charter of the College so as to allow this Association the privilege of electing three members of the Board of Trustees from the Alumni of the College in such way as to cause the election of one each year."

At a meeting of the Association held June 21, 1887, a report was made that the request of the previous year had been acceded to by the Board of Trustees and that the charter of the College had been amended by the legislature in conformity to the same.

An election was immediately held resulting in the choice of

C. E. Dowman, Trustee for three years,

C. G. Goodrich, Trustee for two years,

R. E. Park, Trustee for one year.

At the meeting of the Association in 1895 Judge H. E. W. Palmer suggested that the "Association should be regularly incorporated under the laws of Georgia and that its members should consist of the graduates and former students of the College, who should pay annual dues of $5 each; that the Association should thereafter hold its meetings at night, to which the public should not be invited, and that a banquet should be one of the features of these meetings; also, that the Association should undertake the endowment of an alumni professorship of History and Political Economy. These suggestions were adopted, and on motion a committee was appointed to secure a charter. At this meeting it was also determined that the next one should be at night, and a committee of arrangements was appointed to provide for a banquet. The meeting for 1896 was accordingly held on Monday night of the commencement in the library room of Seney Hall, where a banquet was served, and those who were present will not soon forget that delightful occasion. The charter which had been secured was then presented and formally adopted, and an organization perfected.

"As stated in the charter, 'the object of said corporation is not pecuniary gain to its members, but its object will be to promote and foster the interests of Emory College in all proper manner and particularly to endow a professorship in said College to be supported by said corporation, and to cultivate and encourage the feeling of fellowship and comradeship among its members, with full power to do all things necessary or desirable to attain such objects.'

"At the meeting of 1896 the Association passed a resolution requesting the trustees of the College to establish an alumni chair of History and Political Economy, and pledged the Association to support it. The trustees acted in accordance with this request."

An organization was effected as follows: President, H. E. W. Palmer, '72; Treasurer, J. E. Diekey, '91 (one month), H. H. Stone, '80 (eleven months); Secretary, H. S. Bradley, '90.

Directors: W. P. Pattillo, '57; Capers Dickson, '69; J. W. Branham, '61; W. A. Candler, '75; H. H. Stone, '80; H. S. Bradley, '90; H. E. W. Palmer, '72.

Possibly the most important action of the Association since 1895 was the adoption of new By-Laws on June 17, 1906. Among other things, allowing life membership in the Association upon the payment of $100.00, said payments to become part of a fund to constitute the permanent endowment of the chair of History and Political Economy.

ALUMNI TRUSTEES.

Article Six of the By-Laws of the Association says:

"One Trustee of Emory College shall be elected by this Association at each annual meeting for a term of three years, in accordance with the laws of Emory College. Such Alumni Trustees must have been members of this Association in good standing for at least three years prior to the meeting at which they are to be elected, before they are eligible to election, and if any Alumni Trustee should fail to pay his dues in this Association, his place shall be declared vacant and his successor elected."

The present Alumni Trustees are:

L. Z. ROSSER, '78, Atlanta, Ga. (term expires June 1910).

L. W. FOREMAN, '01, Atlanta, Ga. (term expires June, 1911).

J. T. DAVES, '90, Atlanta, Ga. (term expires June, 1912).

ANNUAL MEMBERS OF THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

The dues to the Alumni Association are $5.00 a year. The annual members pay all the expense of the Association as all of the money received on the life membership notes is applied to the endowment.

There are now (October 1, 1909), 140 annual members. They are indicated all through the class rolls by a distinctive type. Associate annual members are friends of the College, but not former students, who pay the annual dues.

LIFE MEMBERS OF THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

The dues to the Alumni Association are $5.00 a year. A life membership costs $100.00 and exempts the payer from the annual dues. Upon request the Treasurer will send five blank notes, which call for $20.00 a year for five years, to any alumnus. When the first of these notes is paid the alumnus will be placed on the list of life membership. The principal of these notes is applied to the endowment of the alumni professorship, the chair of history. (See Art. II, Sec. 6, By-Laws.)

There are now (November 1, 1909) 55 life members. The Association has guaranteed to raise $30,000.00 for the endowment and must secure 300 life members to do so.

The life members are indicated all through the class rolls by a distinctive type.

Associate life members are friends of the College, but not former students, who have paid $100.00.

ALUMNI ORATOR, 1909

*Judge William Lea Chambers, '71, former Chief Justice of Samoa, now member of Spanish Treaty Claims Commission,

ALUMNI ORATOR, 1909.

Article Five of the By-Laws of the Alumni Association says: "An Alumni Orator shall be chosen by the Board of Directors from among the former students of Emory College, who have distinguished themselves in the different walks of life, who shall deliver an address before this Association at its annual meeting."

Judge W. L. Chambers, '71, was the Alumni Orator at the commencement of 1909 and had the degree of LL.D. conferred on him by his Alma Mater.

Judge Chambers is a grandson of James M. Chambers, a former president of the board of trustees of Emory College. He is the son of William Henry Chambers, A.B. Emory, 1845, LL.B. Harvard, 1847, who was an editor, lawyer, speaker of the Alabama legislature, trustee of Emory College and Professor of English at the Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical College at Auburn at the time of his death. Two of his uncles, James N. Chambers, Emory '54 and Robert A. Chambers, Emory '57 A.B., died from wounds received in battle. His brother, Porter Flewellyn Chambers, Emory '73 A.B.,; M.D. Bellevue Hospital Medical College, New York, 1876; is a physician in New York City.

Judge Chambers was a member of the class of 1871 at Emory but left College during his Senior year and did not graduate. He taught school 1871-73, was admitted to the bar 1873, practiced law in Montgomery, Ala. 1873-78; was president of First National Bank, Montgomery, 1884-88; vice-president and general counsel Sheffield Land, Iron and Coal Company of Alabama and president of the Bank of Commerce, Sheffield, Ala. 1888-93, member of the Samoan Commission 1893-95; removed to Washington, D. C. 1895; practiced law there until appointed by the governments of England, Germany and the United States Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Samoa 1897; resigned the Chief Justiceship of Samoa and resumed the practice of law in Washington 1899; appointed member of the Spanish Treaty Claims Commission 1901; is a member of a number of literary, scientific and educational institutions and a contributor to the literary journals and has always been active in philanthropic and religious work. While Chief Justice of the International Court in Samoa, he presided and rendered the decision in the famous contest for the kingship which was followed by a revolution in the Islands; the United States and England gave prompt adherence to the decision, and revolution resulted from a disagreement on the part of the representative of the German Empire. A High Commission composed of eminent diplomatists of the three governments visited the Islands, and as a result of their investigation the decision of the Chief Justice was sustained and the successful contestant for the kingship was crowned and recognized by the three governments. While still a member of the Spanish Treaty Claims Commission he has resumed the practice of law in Washington. The subject of his address before the Alumni Association was "Education; A Trust."

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF EMORY COLLEGE.

EMORY COLLEGE was named in honor of Bishop John Emory, of Maryland, who was elected to the episcopacy in 1832 on the same ballot with Bishop James O. Andrew, and who presided over the fourth session of the Georgia Conference, at Washington, Wilkes County, in 1834. In December, 1835, he was accidentally thrown from his carriage and killed, near his home in Baltimore. The Conference session of 1836, at Columbus, Ga., appointed trustees to incorporate the College, and directed them to call it EMOERY, probably at the suggestion of Bishop Andrew, as a tribute to the memory of his lamented colleague. In pursuance of the will of the Conference, the trustees bought 1,400 acres of woodland near Covington, Newton County, in the granite region of Georgia, for $14,000, and, at the suggestion of Dr. Ignatius A. Few, gave it the classic name of Oxford, in honor of the old English university.

In 1837 the College was opened for the reception of students, under the presidency of Dr. I. A. Few, with Dr. Alexander Means and Rev. Charles W. Lane as professors. The first class, of three members, was graduated in 1841. During these years, 1,601 men have received the diplomas of the College, and have since served the country and the church with honor to themselves and their Alma Mater.

During the presidency of Dr. A. G. Haygood the College began to take on new life, when Mr. George I. Seney, of Brooklyn, N. Y., gave about $100,000 to the institution, erecting the building known as Seney Hall and making large additions to the endowment.

Under the presidency of Dr. W. A. Candler $100,000 was added to the endowment, Rev. W. P. Pattillo, of Atlanta, Ga., giving $25,000. The new library building named "Candler Hall," was erected at a cost of $25,000.

During the presidency of Dr. C. E. Dowman a $30,000 Science Hall was projected, the corner-stone was laid, and the funds with which to erect the building were in a large measure secured, Capt. J. P. Williams, of Savannah, donating $15,000.

24 HISTORICAL SKETCH OF EMORY COLLEGE.

The original Board of Trustees was composed of men whose names are historic in Georgia Methodism: Ignatius A. Few, Lovick Pierce, Charles Hardy, William J. Parks, Elijah Sinclair, Samuel K. Hodges, Samuel J. Bryan, Alexander Speer, George F. Pierce, Daniel P. Hillhouse, William P. Graham, Seaborn Jones, Joseph A. Eve, Iverson L. Graves, Lucius Wittich, and John Park.

The following have filled the office of President: Ignatius A. Few, D.D., LL.D.; Augustus B. Longstreet, LL.D.; George F. Pierce, D.D., LL.D.; Alexander Means, D.D., LL.D.; James R. Thomas, LL.D.; Luther M. Smith, D.D.; Osborne L. Smith, D.D.; Atticus G. Haygood, D.D., LL.D.; Isaac S. Hopkins, Ph.D., D.D.; Warren A. Candler, D.D., LL.D.; C. E. Dowman, D.D. Three of these, Drs. Pierce, Haygood and Candler, were elected to the episcopacy from the presidency of the College. Dr. Haygood, however, declined the election in 1882 on account of his duty to the College, but was re-elected in 1899, after he had resigned the presidency.
